H. Seamans, 41, Dies Here Early Today

Henry W. Seamans, aged 41, died today in a local hospital. He was a native of Greenwood, Ark. and had lived here for the past six years. Mr. Seamans, active in civic affairs, was a World War II veteran, a member of the Methodist Church, past president of the Hope Kiwanis Club, member of the Chamber of Commerce and the Century Bible Class.

He was an associate of the Jay-Bee Amusement Co. and managed several theaters in this area. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Velda Forrest Seamans, a son, Michael Warren Seamans, and a daughter, Pamela Jane Seamans; a sister, Mrs. Yvette Lewis of Okemah, Okla.

Services will be held at First Methodist Church at 2:30 p.m. on Friday by the Rev. Rufus S. Wells. Interment will be in Memorial Gardens here by Oakcrest Funeral Service.

Active pallbearers: Arch Wylie, George Frazier, Jack Gardner, J. W. Franks, James McLarty, Sam Strong and Bill Reinhardt. Honorary: Members of Kiwanis Club and Century Bible Class.

Quilting Rougher at Age of 107

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — At her age, Margaret Lewis feels she needs a little mechanical help "to keep my things clean."

So she wished for an automatic washing machine Wednesday afternoon blowing out the 107 candles on her birthday cake.

Mrs. Lewis, born a slave near Glasgow, Ky., lives with a granddaughter and spends most of her time knitting and making quilts. "I gotta admit though, it's not as easy as it once was."

Arkansas Future Series Is Planned

An "Arkansas Future Series" of informal, home conducted discussions groups is being organized statewide to debate crucial issues facing Arkansas in the 1960s, it was announced today by C. A. Vines, director, agricultural extension service.

The four week series is scheduled for May 1-31. Weekly discussion topics are "Arkansas Today," "A Changing Arkansas," "A Developing Arkansas" and "Arkansas Future."

"Our goal is 50,000 or more adult Arkansians, friends and neighbors meeting in groups of 6 to 12, meeting in their own homes," Vines said.

Taking part in an "Arkansas Future" program is simple, says Calvin Caldwell, county agent, who will coordinate the series in Hempstead. Only one interested person is needed to get 6 to 12 of his friends to visit at a group. Each person then obtains a set of "Arkansas Future" fact sheets from the county Extension office. They then set up their own schedule of weekly meetings which are conducted by the members themselves.

It is not intended that these groups will arrive at group conclusions or decisions, Mr. Caldwell said. The sole purpose of this group program is strictly educational, providing people with the facts from which they can draw their own conclusions.

He added, a folder "You And Arkansas Future," explains the entire series and is available at the extension office. All interested citizens are urged to obtain a folder and participate.

Way Open to Double State Indebtedness

(This is the fourth in a series of articles interpreting actions of the 1961 General Assembly.)

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The 1961 General Assembly opened the door for Arkansas to more than double its bonded indebtedness in the next four years.

At the urging of Gov. Orval E. Faubus, the legislature authorized a popular vote on two bond issues — $60 million for institutional construction and $20 million for highways.

The $80 million total compares to a present bonded debt of $64,570,000, the remains of a giant 1941 refunding bond issue. Much of this debt was assumed by the state when it took over obligations of local highway improvement districts in the 1920s and 1930s. It is being repaid at the rate of $7,175,000 a year (interest and principal) from Highway Department funds.

General revenues will be used to retire the $60 million in construction bonds if voters approve the issue. Any new highway bonds, of course, would be retired from highway revenues.

Legislative authorization for a popular vote was the first of several steps toward actual issuance of the bonds. The next step is for Faubus to set a special election date. If the bond issue is approved, the state Board of Finance takes over to issue the bonds and sell them.

Not all the $80 million worth of bonds can be issued at once. The bill permits floating $20 million worth in the 1961-62 fiscal year, $15 million worth in fiscal 1962-63, another $15 million worth in fiscal 1963-64 and a final $10 million worth in fiscal 1964-65.

However, since no new tax was levied to retire the bonds, safeguards were written into the bill to insure that current revenues will be adequate to retire the bonds. After the first $20 million is issued, the next $15 million cannot be sold unless the bond fund has enough money to pay the first year's debt service on the $20 million plus enough to pay a year's service on the $15 million. The same kind of rule holds for the succeeding $15 and $10 million issues. The money for at least one year's debt service has to be in the kitty before the bonds can be sold.

Congress Gets Kennedy's Farm Program

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy today asked Congress to delegate to the secretary of agriculture and to the farmers themselves authority to draw up and put into effect programs to raise farm income.

Congress itself would retain only the power to veto a program it did not like.

Kennedy made this proposal to shift the farm program-making process from the lawmakers to farmers and the secretary in a special farm message to Congress. He said he was deeply concerned that present farm programs are "drifting into a chaotic state."

The President also outlined plans to greatly expand distribution of food to the needy at home and abroad.

No cost estimate was given for the over-all provisions of the complex proposals.

Kennedy said effective action to bolster the farm economy is essential if the nation itself is not to be threatened.

Painting a picture of low incomes and dwindling rural buying power, the President said it is "deeply in the interest of all Americans that our agriculture be not only progressive but prosperous."

Broadened use of food supplies for the needy, he said, would help solve the pressing problems of low farm incomes and the costly government purchase and storage of surpluses, which now total about $95 billion.

The idea of letting farmers themselves draft their programs was proposed in several farm bills introduced in the last Congress.

Under the Kennedy proposals, the farmer advisory committees would be created to work with the secretary in formulating programs for individual crops and livestock. Once such a proposed program involving controls was drafted, it would be submitted to affected producers. If approved by at least two-thirds those voting in a referendum, the program would go into full effect in 60 days unless rejected by either house within that period.

Farmers would be authorized to use a wide-ranging kit of tools in the proposed programs. The tools would include marketing quotas—based on bushels, tons or other units of production, government-financed price supports, deficiency payments, incentive payments, government purchases of surpluses and diversion of them into by-product or other uses, and export subsidies.

The purpose of the individual commodity programs would be to balance production with demand so that there would be little or no surpluses to depress prices or require use of government supports.

A perfect program would make production come out exactly even with demand. The resulting prices would be expected to give farmers what Kennedy has called a parity of income with others, taking labor, capital and management input into consideration.

In such a case, there would be no government expenditures on price supports, production payments or the like. However, to the extent production did exceed markets, there would be government acquisition of excess supplies under price supports or purchase arrangements.

It Takes Plenty of Groceries

BURLINGAME, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. John Hillyard was sacking potatoes in a self-service grocery store when a woman beside her remarked something about how "many people we mothers have to feed."

Then she added, somewhat apologetically: "I'm expecting my 12th child. I suppose you are going to ask, 'How do you do it?'"

"Well—L. no," said Mrs. Hillyard. "I know just how you feel about that question."

"I already have 13."

Kennedy Gets Depressed Bill by Big Vote

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has handed President Kennedy a resounding victory in its 63-27 vote to pass a key part of his economic program—the $394 million depressed areas bill.

The more than 2-1 margin in Wednesday night's roll call compared with the slim 49-46 tally by which almost an identical measure squeaked through the Senate two years ago this month.

The measure now goes to the House where leaders said today they expect to be able to pass it before the Easter recess into this month.

A House Banking subcommittee Wednesday approved a bill almost identical to the Senate version. In the past, the House has trimmed such legislation, but it appears to have more support there this year.

The bill carries $300 million in federal loan funds and $94 million in grants designed to bring new jobs to communities long suffering from high unemployment.

As it passed the Senate, the measure follows almost exactly Kennedy's recommendations including administration of the new program by the Commerce Department.

Forty-Eight Democrats and 15 Republicans voted for the bill, with 11 Democrats and 16 Republicans opposed.

Among those voting aye was Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., chairman of the Republican National Committee. Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois vigorously opposed it.

Sharing the victory with Kennedy was Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., who has championed the bill since 1955 and has four times piloted it through the Senate. Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower killed two of the previous bills with vetoes.

Douglas emphasized that the bill was not an anti-recession measure but rather was aimed at doing something about persistent pockets of chronic unemployment in both industrial and farm areas.

Distressed textile, coal and railroad towns in New England, West Virginia and Pennsylvania are examples of the communities the measure is designed to aid.

Opponents of the bill argued it would not actually do the job and would arouse many false hopes. They said federal aid would not solve the problems which have caused loss of jobs in many depressed areas.

The bill carries $100 million each in loans for plants and other facilities to attract new companies to depressed industrial areas, for the same purpose in rural low-income areas, and for public facilities such as water systems needed to service new industries.

Also included are these grant funds: $75 million for public facilities in communities too poor to handle loans, $4.5 million each for retraining workers and for technical help to distressed communities in planning redevelopment, and $10 million for subsistence payments to workers while they are being retrained.

Group Asks Paving 32 Into Bodcaw

A Chamber of Commerce delegation headed by Rep. Talbot Field Jr. appeared before the Arkansas State Highway Commission Wednesday, March 15, in the interest of paving State Highway 32 from the Junction of State Highway 4, east of Hope, through Shover Springs and into Bodcaw.

Other citizens from the area in attendance were Sen. Olen Hendrix, County Judge Orie Byers, J. F. McDowell, Howard Reese, Garland Medders and B. N. Holt. The delegation was promised some favorable action on this project within the next two years.

Congolese Hold 30 Americans Under Arrest

By DENNIS NEED

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Congolese soldiers are holding 30 American missionaries and seven other white persons under arrest at Kasongo in the anarchy-torn province of Kivu, the United Nations reported today.

A U.N. spokesman said the Americans—believed to be Protestant missionaries of the World Grace Testimony or the Evangelical Society African Mission—succeeded in getting out a message saying they were held under guard and were without food.

Malayan U.N. patrols were reported advancing to rescue the Americans from their base at Kindu, more than 100 miles from Kasongo. The Malaysians have been ordered to take them to Kindu so they can be flown to Leopoldville.

An American girl, reported in messages to U.N. headquarters to have been raped by four Congolese at another outlying Protestant mission station in Kivu, now has been brought to safety at Kindu.

Malayan patrols reached the girl after a two-day trek through the scrub and jungle. They met no opposition, the U.N. spokesman said.

The girl is one of several white refugees at Kindu awaiting evacuation to Leopoldville or the neighboring Belgian trust territory of Ruanda-Urundi. Malayan soldiers hold the Kindu airfield but the Communist government in Kivu refuses the refugees to get permits.

A U.N. spokesman said the refugees were getting out in small groups.

Giant U.S. Air Force globemasters roared into Leopoldville's tightly guarded airport today with crack Gurkha troops, the vanguard of a 4,700-strong combat Indian brigade ordered to U.N. duty in the Congo.

Despite the Congo government's bitter condemnation of the U.N. reinforcement by Indians, there was no trouble.

By early morning 20 soldiers and 20 tons of jeeps, weapons, ammunition and equipment had arrived.

Many of the first Gurkha arrivals are veterans of the World War II campaign against the Japanese in Burma.

U.N. officers said the Indians would be stationed temporarily in Leopoldville. Congolese sources in Elisabethville Wednesday said they are expected to be assigned eventually to North Katanga, where President Moise Tshombe's troops have been trying to crush tribesmen supporting the rebel Stanleyville regime.

On the political front, Premier Joseph Ileo of the Leopoldville government disclosed negotiations are under way to bring rebel-held Oriental Province into the proposed Congolese confederation.

Ileo said Gen. Victor Lundula, commander of the rebel army, had sent him a telegram expressing a desire to reach an amicable settlement.

La. May Shift to Private Schools

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Segregation leaders today awaited Gov. Jimmie D. Davis' reaction to their request for a limited constitutional convention to enable the state's 67 school districts to shift to private schools by fall.

The segregation strategists, along with key legislative whips for the Davis administration, Wednesday called for the convention as soon as practical.

Chairman Frank Voelker Jr. of the State Sovereignty Commission and State Rep. Hasley Triche of Assumption Parish said they would ask for the convention to meet some time after the 30-day fiscal Legislature in May.

The Sovereignty Commission held a closed door five hour meeting with Triche, House floor leader for the administration, and the Joint Legislative Committee on Segregation, headed by Rep. John Garrett of Ouachita Parish.

Voelker said the group wanted to avoid a special session if possible.

Davis has called five special sessions since New Orleans public schools were integrated last November under federal court directives. The sessions cost the taxpayers a little more than one million dollars in salaries for legislators and expenses.

Most of the legislation passed in the extraordinary sessions aimed at blocking integration was tossed out by federal courts as the state and federal governments waged a running legal battle, which still continues.

Garrett declined to reveal plans which he said were made to help get state Education Supt. Shelby M. Jackson off the hook in the integration row.

Jackson has until March 24 to purge himself of federal contempt charges stemming from his alleged interference with the operation of Orleans Parish schools.

Earlier this week, Jackson called on legislators to aid him in his dilemma. If he complies with the federal court directive he would be violating segregation statutes still on the books.

4-H Council to Meet Monday

The 4-H County Council will meet Monday night, March 27 at 7:30 in the courthouse according to Calvin Caldwell, County Agent.

The council, which meets once each month, has had good programs arranged by Jimmy Carver, program chairman. This month John L. Wilson, attorney, will be the speaker.

Eight new 4-H clubs have been organized in the county within the last 30 days, Mr. Caldwell said. All members and leaders are urged to attend the council meet.

South Africa Censured by United Nations

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly today censured the Union of South Africa for its actions in West Africa.

The action came less than 24 hours after the South African government announced it was withdrawing from the British Commonwealth because of attacks on South Africa's racial policies.

The vote on today's resolution was 74-0 with nine abstentions. The South African delegation did not vote.

The approved resolution asserted that the South African government was acting illegally in trying to incorporate the former League of Nations mandate into South Africa. This, the resolution said, "constitutes a challenge to the authority of the United Nations."

"The United States and all members of the British Commonwealth, except Britain and Australia, voted for the resolution. Those abstaining were Australia, Belgium, Dominican Republic, Finland, France, Luxembourg, Portugal, Spain and Britain."

There was no immediate reaction from the South African government, but there was mounting speculation that the union government might withdraw from the United Nations.

Two more complaints against South Africa's white supremacist policies and her treatment of Indian nationals on her soil are scheduled to come up this session. The delegates wondered if Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd's government, smarting over its break with the Commonwealth, might carry out repeated veiled threats to withdraw from the United Nations.

Similar speculation was reported widespread in South Africa itself.

The South African delegation walked out of the General Assembly in 1955, protesting that the assembly was meddling in the nation's internal affairs. The delegation kept only a token staff at U.N. headquarters for the balance of that session.

The resolution now before the assembly calls on member nations closest to Verwoerd's government to pressure it to change its policies toward Southwest Africa and abide by previous U.S. resolutions concerning the territory.

The resolution cleared the 99-nation trusteeship committee Monday by a vote of 60-0 with 12 abstentions. The United States voted for the resolution, while Britain, France, Belgium and other colonial powers abstained. South Africa refused to participate in the balloting.

Earlier U.N. resolutions have urged the South African government to place Southwest Africa under U.N. trusteeship and stop applying its racial segregation policies in the territory.

Judy Garland Is Back in Filmland

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Judy's back, and she's sure enough the new Garland we've been hearing about.

The game gal who starred for 20 years in Hollywood has returned for her first movie in almost seven years. The last one was "A Star is Born," a handsome job that got her an Academy nomination.

Even at 38 she has the glow of legend about her. You think of the youthful triumphs, and the mature years full of troubles and disappointment. The smash comeback at the Palace, then other times of illness and problems.

The travails now seem far behind her. When I saw her on the set of "Judgment at Nuremberg," she was as cheerful as a starlet. She is still a looker. Her face seems slimmer than in recent years. Though she is inclined to be buxom, she tapers down to a pair of shapely gams. These were personal observations. She is bored with questions about her weight, and with good reason.

Is she mad at Hollywood? "No, not at all," she replied. "How could I be? I've had some wonderful times here."

I am selling my house here merely because it's more convenient for me to live in London and New York. My work is centered around those places. Hollywood is actually out of the way as a place to live. You have to fly five hours just to get to New York. Then it's a matter of getting to Europe or wherever that I'm working.

Variety Chain Opens 100th Store in Texas

Morgan & Lindsey, Inc., of Jasper, Texas, the South's largest regional variety chain, has just announced the opening of its 100th variety store in Dallas. The history making unit is located at the new "Northwest Center" in the northeast suburban area of Dallas and is one of the company's largest stores.

An accelerated expansion program in the past 12 months has marked Morgan & Lindsey as not only the largest, but also the fastest growing regional variety chain in the South. By April 1, the firm will have opened ten new stores within a year and will open at least ten more new ones within a similar span of time this year.

In noting the opening of the 100 store, Morgan & Lindsey president E. E. Latham, said "This is indeed a milestone in our company's history. We are proud first of all of having reached such a milestone, and secondly, in so doing, that we are able to better serve our loyal friends and customers throughout the South, who have made our rapid growth possible."

Morgan & Lindsey now operates stores in Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana.

When a pair of robins built a nest in an unmade bed in Birmingham England, the owner let them remain there until they had reared their young.

house in London and an apartment in New York. She'll return to England in June, after her three children get out of school. In contrast to "A Star is Born" which took six months to film, she is working eight days in "Judgment." Like Marlene Dietrich and Montgomery Clift, she is playing a witness at the war crimes trial of German jurists. Judy plays a German girl who became involved in a Nazi Racial pollution case.

"More movies? Sure, I'm interested. They can be either dramatic or musical; it doesn't matter to me, I just want to do good pictures."

Her future plans include a concert tour of the United States; she just scored a hit with her 2½-hour song sessions in Texas. She also has some dates in Europe and may do the London company of "The Unsinkable Molly Brown" — if she can sew up the film rights, too.

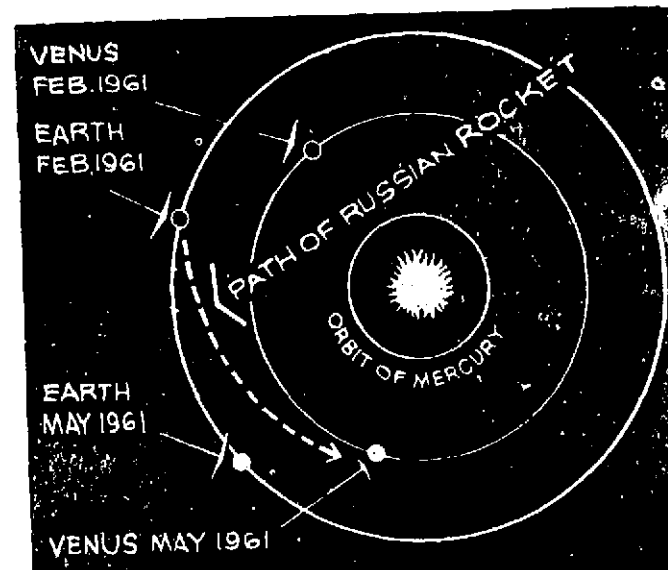

IS VENUS A PRIMITIVE JUNGLE OR A DARK, BARREN DESERT?

Little is known about Venus because of the dense clouds that hide its surface. Even the length of its day is uncertain. An old theory holds that Venus is a wet, jungle planet resembling earth millions of years ago. Water vapor was recently discovered in its atmosphere. The jungle idea may not be entirely impossible.

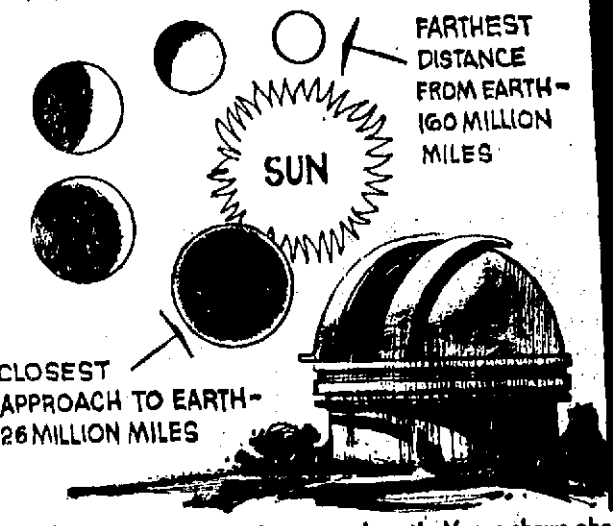

Modern theories say Venus is probably a wind-swept dust bowl. An abundance of carbon dioxide in the atmosphere, plus the planet's nearness to the sun mean that its temperature must be extremely high. Its clouds may be dust or volcanic ash. Perhaps the Russian probe will shed new light on the enigma of Venus.

On Feb. 12, Russia launched a 1,400-pound "automatic interplanetary station" toward Venus from an orbiting sputnik. It is expected to pass close to that planet near the end of April or early in May when Venus is closest to earth. It will continue on in orbit around the sun. Drawing shows the Venus rocket's route.

THE PHASES OF VENUS:

Because it orbits between the sun and earth, Venus shows phases as the moon does. Familiar as the evening or morning star, it has a diameter of 7,700 miles and because of this has been called Earth's twin. A 170-pound earthling would weigh about 145 pounds on Venus. Advanced life apparently does not exist on it.

Woman Gives Birth to Quadruplets

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "A gift of God," exclaimed William W. Cutlar, III after his young wife gave birth to quadruplet girls Wednesday night.

"It's quite a feeling," he said. "I'm more or less starting to get back to reality. But tell me, what do you do with four at once. I still don't know. I can't imagine what it will be like taking care of four at once."

"Do you have children? Well, four times one. Let's put it that way. But just how the heck we didn't slip a boy in there I don't know."

"She (the mother) was really excited and trying to think of names. 'What will I name them,' she kept repeating, and all this and that. She's just so happy. I'll let her name them."

"We thought they were going to be boys, so we picked out names after the disciples — Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. Now we'll have to change all that."

As for the babies and their mother, 24, a supervisor at Delaware County Hospital in Upper Darby gave this report: "The mother is doing well. The babies are holding their own. We haven't weighed them yet but I estimate they weigh from 2½ to 3 pounds. They are in satisfactory condition. They have been placed in isolates (similar to incubators) because they need all the oxygen they can get."

Cutlar, 26, who helps his father operate a transportation firm in Kennett Square, Pa., said he and his wife had been told about four weeks ago to expect quadruplets.

The Cutlars moved from their three bedroom home in nearby Paoli into his parents' five bedroom home in suburban Devon because of the new additions. The couple has two other children, William IV, 4, and Sheree, 3.

How their telephones save Mr. and Mrs. Neil Sauer 2½ hours a day

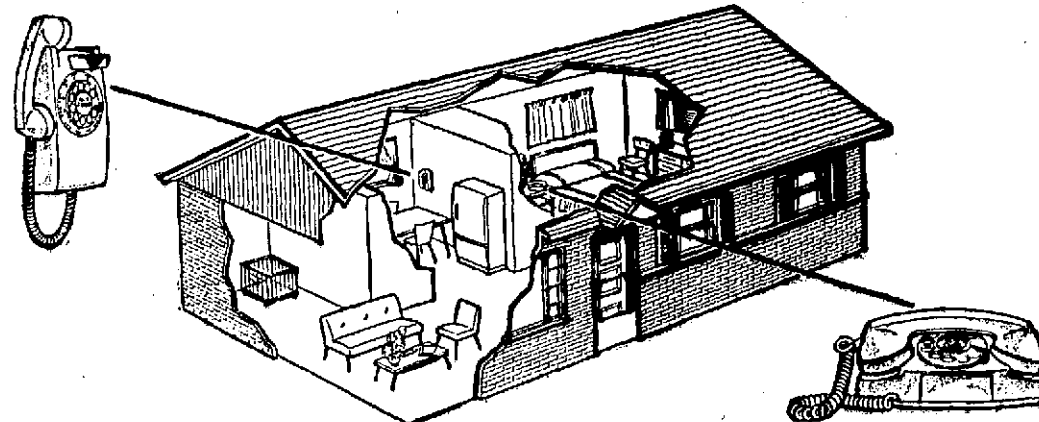

By DON DAVIS, Telephone News Writer

"I called a department store to order a place setting of china I saw advertised. I'm going to give it to a friend who is getting married."

"As a photographer, I have calls at home in the evening to arrange for props and models. So I use our Princess phone in the bedroom, where it's quiet."

The Sauers use their phones — a white Princess model in the bedroom and a green wall phone in the kitchen — about 50 times a week to help them get things done.

As she speaks of the Princess, Mrs. Sauer's eyes light up. "It's so small and lovely. And the way the dial lights up is great." The Sauers use their bedroom phone when they want quiet and privacy. This phone also gives Mrs. Sauer a sense of security when she's alone at night.

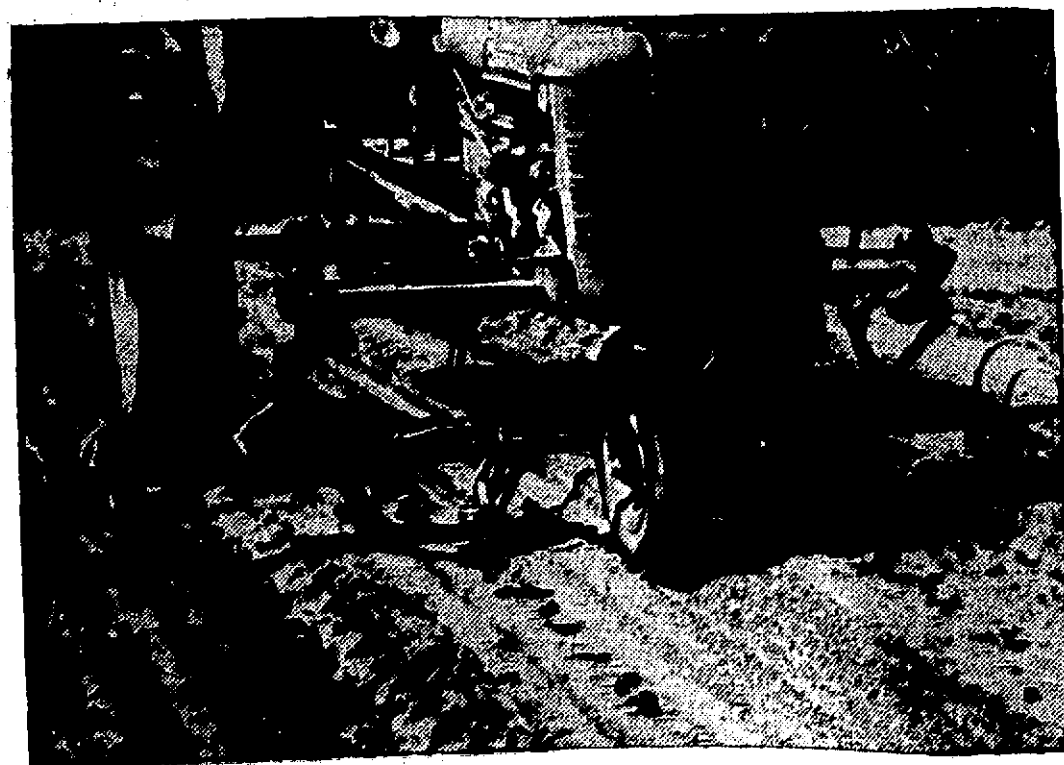

Why not take a tip from the Sauers? Enjoy the convenience, pleasure and security of extension telephones. Just call the telephone business office or ask a telephone serviceman. Cost is low.

Corned Beef, Cabbage on Bargain List

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Corned beef and cabbage, long associated with St. Patrick's Day, will be featured in many supermarkets and neighborhood groceries this week.

Stores in the Midwest and Far West join those along the Eastern seaboard in offering specials on corned beef. Prices in the New York metropolitan area are unchanged from a year ago at 59 to 79 cents a pound, depending on the cut you want.

Frying and broiling chickens also are the top offering in some areas, reflecting price cuts of 2 to 6 cents a pound in addition to increasing supplies.

Leg of lamb is another frequently offered item, ranging from New England through the Midwest to the Far West. Such fish items as smelts and swordfish are on the bill in areas near seaports.

Housewives have a choice of cabbage, if they decide on the corned beef. Old crop cabbage from last fall is an outstanding buy, while new cabbage from Florida and Texas is slightly higher but still a good buy.

Other outstanding vegetable buys available this week include beets, broccolli-rabe, cauliflower, Florida celery, green onions, lettuce, medium yellow onions, potatoes, radishes, spinach, sweet potatoes, turnips and parsnips.

Good buys also include artichokes, carrots, corn, endive, escarole, large onions, peppers, peas, tomatoes, watercress, mushrooms, kale, collard, hanoover salad, mustard greens and turnip tops.

Fruit counter bargains continue to feature Macintosh and Rome apples, pineapples, grapefruit and oranges, while good buys are golden and red Delicious apples, honeydew melons from Chile, pears, lemons, California's emperor grapes and coconuts.

About 70 per cent of the purchases of meat were shipped into the state by packers outside of the state, or by Arkansas packers as live animals.

dent. Mrs. Nan Taylor, Secretary Mrs. Florence Hyatt, Coordinator Mrs. Miriam O'Neal, and treasurer, Mrs. B. N. Holt.

Mrs. Kathryn Shiron gave the devotional and Mrs. Mamie Gentry presented the program entitled "We Praise Thee for the Radiance." She was assisted by Mrs. Martha Stephenson, Mrs. Jewel McCain, Mrs. Rachael Edmiston Mrs. McLarty and Mrs. Brown. A delicious salad plate with coffee was served to 16 present.

Spring Hill Good Neighbor Club

The Spring Hill Good Neighbor Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. V. G. McMurtrey. The meeting opened with singing and a devotional.

Mrs. Joe Martin was in charge and spoke on "How to Grow and when to plant" plants. Each member exchanged plants.

Refreshments of delicious cake, coffee and tea were served by the hostess. Games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. Morse.

Potluck for Hope Shrine Club

Visitors and members of the Hope Shrine Club enjoyed a potluck supper followed by games at the Hope Country Club Tuesday, March 14. Newly elected officers and wives were hosts for the occasion. They include E. P. Young, president; Webb Laseter Jr., first vice president and Dr. George Wright, second vice president.

Some 60 persons attended. Out-of-towners were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Fagan III, Robert Stair, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Barres, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Crippen, Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace all of Little Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Johnson and Mrs. L. L. Mitchell of Prescott.

In a setting of spring flowers a sumptuous meal was served. After which the president welcomed the guest. Games were played with prizes going to the winners.

WSSC Meets at Church

The regular meeting of WSSC was held in the Methodist Church Monday, March 13 at 2 p.m. The president, Mrs. Edwin Ward, presided. The meeting opened with piano music by Mrs. J. C. Carlton and Mrs. E. P. Young presented the devotional, assisted by Mrs. F. C. Crow, Mrs. C. D. Lester and Mrs. Bill Roulton.

Mrs. Ward gave a review of the WSSC Annual Conference in Little Rock. Mrs. Rufus Sorrells also attended gave interesting highlights from the program presented by the groups. Mrs. Roulton read a memorial to Mrs. O. C. Sutton. The president dismissed with prayer.

Coming and Going

Mrs. P. L. Perkins returned home Saturday from New Orleans, La. where she has been a patient in the Orshner Clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jones returned home Wednesday from a trip to Vicksburg and Natchez, Miss.

DOROTHY DIX

Love in a Cottage Better Than Riches?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: No matter how I rebuff him he won't take no for an answer. My mother says I will learn to like him, especially when the way is smoothed by money and traveling in the right circles. I go steady with a college boy my age. My mother thinks I should drop him overboard for a fellow six years older than I who promises me mink, diamonds and a plush home. What do you think of a mother who wants her daughter to marry an older man just because he has money?

Sure, I'll have to start from the bottom rung of the ladder and work up with this boy of mine but we both have college educations, the will to succeed and are madly in love. We plan to marry when he finishes college next June. I switched from liberal arts to business college last year, have a good job and am saving for our future. Mother calls my boy friend a gigolo. This hurts. He works during all vacations. Am I wrong for putting love, understanding and mutual interests above mink, diamonds and plush homes? —Confused

Dear Confused: At 21 you're legally old enough to know your own mind. Being true to yourself, and not love versus riches, is the issue. Do what in your heart you feel right. Listen to that still small voice and don't be swayed by worldly standards even though your mother upholds them. Send a stamped self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "The Ideal Husband."

Dear Helen:

I am 23, my husband 29. He wants kids; so do I. He nags, nags all the time because we don't have any. It's making me a nervous wreck. I love my husband and he loves me. What shall we do? —Mrs. M.

Dear Mrs. M.: See your family doctor and relax. Two of my best friends had children after 14 years of marriage. Meanwhile, why not adopt a child? In many cases the tension eases and, in time, the couple who adopt a child produce one or more of their own.

Dear Helen:

When a woman lives and works in an institution in quarters marked "Private," shouldn't the male secretary-treasurer knock on the door and wait for a reply before entering?

This man knocks on my door and without waiting for so much as, "Who is it?" barges in. He has come into my bedroom when I was lying down and even peaked into the bathroom. What

Ingemar Has His Tax Problems

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Sweden's Ingemar Johansson, who lost his bid to recapture the world heavyweight boxing title, won a breathing spell today in his battle with the U.S. government over a $1-million tax claim.

Johansson had been ordered to appear before Justice Department officials but his attorneys were allowed to represent him instead. Lavinia L. Redd, an assistant U.S. district attorney, said she would meet with the Swede's lawyers to fix a date to take a deposition from Johansson.

Johansson was served with papers in the tax suit shortly after he was knocked out in the sixth round by heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson in Miami Beach Monday night.

The government is demanding $411,620 against Johansson's 1961 income in addition to $950,181 in back tax claims for 1959 and 1960.

Johansson contends he represents a Swiss corporation and thus is not subject to the tax.

Integrate or Tax

LOCKNEY, Tex. (AP) — Residents of this West Texas city vote April 1 on whether to integrate their school or pay a higher tax to send Negro students to school in another district.

can I do? —Private-or-not.

Dear Private-or-not: Turn the key as a protection from this wolf, especially when not on duty.

Send your problems to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available.

Two specific revenue allocations from bond retirement were made - increased revenue from a tighter use tax and taxes from an additional 12 days of racing at Hot Springs' Oaklawn Park.

The use tax income has been estimated at from $500,000 to $1 million a year; the race track revenue at from $250,000 to $375,000. If the maximum estimates are correct, these two sources would produce almost enough revenue to service the first $20 million in bonds.

Frank Storey, secretary of the Board of Finance said debt service on $20 million worth of 20-year bonds would run $1,344,400 if the interest rate is 3 per cent and $1,471,600 if the rate is 4 per cent. Storey said the actual interest rate should fall between 3 and 4 per cent.

"Arkansas has an excellent credit rating that should assure us of a good rate of interest," Storey said. "Bond interest rates depend on two factors - the general economic situation and the credit rating of the borrower."

The Board of Finance will take sealed bids from prospective bond purchasers with the firm or syndicate offering the lowest rate getting the bonds. Storey said the Board of Finance would work carefully to assure that the bonds were issued at a price to get the best possible interest rate.

Although the total authorization is for 60 million, the 1961 Legislature appropriated only $35 million of the money - representing those bonds which can be sold before the 1963 Legislature meets. The 64th General Assembly will take another look at the bond proposition. It could either repeal the bond bill, wiping out the remaining $25 million bond authorization of appropriate the money if it felt more bonds were needed.

The 1961 Legislature appropriated $175,000 to pay cost of the bond election and issuing the bonds. The treasury would be repaid this amount from the bond issue if it is floated.

Arkansas hasn't floated bonds for general construction purposes since 1939 when it issued 1,220,000 worth for building the State Hospital and Arkansas A&M College. The only major bond issue since 1941's refunding bonds was floated in 1949-50-51, the so-called McMath highway bonds which were retired last year.

Records show Arkansas lopped $100,538,000 off its bonded debt in the past 25 years from a high of $170,068,000 in 1935. The overall debt showed an increase only in the years the McMath bonds were issued.

The current debt of $64,570,000 will be paid off in 1972 if no new bonds are issued. Fausus' bond bill is tied to a $16 million omnibus construction bill which draws from current revenue surpluses. If voters fail to approve the bonds, Fausus has said he will call the Legislature in special session to reallocate the omnibus money with the State Hospital and Children's Colony.

May Solve Two Ferry Problems

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Highway Commission moved today to try to solve two of its most pressing bridge problems on the Arkansas River.

The commission asked the U.S. Corps of Engineers to study the possibility of locating highways across dams scheduled to be built near the present Toad Suck and Pendleton ferries in the Arkansas River development program.

Highway Director F. R. Oliver said the state and federal government would share the road costs.

Toad Suck and Pendleton are two of Arkansas' most heavily traveled ferries and there have been frequent attempts by area interests to get bridges at those locations.

Oliver said the cost of building a road across a dam would be quite small in comparison with the outlay for a bridge.

Toad Suck is a part of State Highway 60 between Faulkner and Perry counties; Pendleton, a part of State Highway 1 between Arkansas and Desha counties.

getting most of it.

Here's how the first $35 million in bonds is divided:

State Hospital $7 million; Children's Colony $2,334,500; McRae Sanatorium $294,000; Blind and Deaf Schools $875,000; University of Arkansas $9,801,500; Arkansas A&M College $1,750,000; State Teachers College $2,215,500; Henderson State College $2,040,500; Arkansas State College $2,772,000; Arkansas Polytechnic College $1,998,000; Southern State College $1,851,500; Arkansas A&M College $1,851,500 and Arkansas State, Beebe branch, $115,500.

The omnibus bill carries about $11 million for construction at other state institutions, including $2,900,000 for state parks.

The first $20 million in bonds can be issued on or after July 1 of this year. Fausus is expected to set the election in advance of that date.

Highway commissioners aren't in as big a hurry to seek a vote on their bonds. The highway bond bill stipulates that the Highway Commission must determine that the state lacks sufficient money to match available federal funds before it can ask Fausus to call for a bond election.

Once the commission makes its request of the governor's the highway bond issue would take the same

Stage Set for Big Scramble in Tournaments

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The stage is set for a merry weekend scramble in college basketball's postseason tournaments.

Southern California, Arizona State University and Houston beat Oregon, Seattle and Marquette, respectively, Wednesday night and became the last teams to qualify for Friday's opening play in the NCAA regionals at Charlotte, Louisville, Lawrence, Kan. and Portland, Ore.

The hectic activity starts tonight with the quarter-finals in the NCAA small college tourney at Evansville, Ind., the opening of the National Invitation Tourney at New York, and the quarter-finals in the NAIA tourney at Kansas City.

Southern Cal. down 36-27 at the half, rallied to beat Oregon 81-79. Arizona State, behind by 11 points at halftime, also bounced back to nip Seattle 72-70 on Gerry Hahn's field goal in the last second. Houston took an early 12-2 lead and went on to wallop Marquette 77-61.

This is the picture for Friday's opening games in the NCAA regionals (for second round nationally):

East at Charlotte, N.C. — Princeton (18-6) vs St. Joseph's of Philadelphia (22-4), St. Bonaventure (23-3) vs Wake Forest (18-10).

Midwest at Louisville, Ky. — Ohio State (24-0) vs Louisville (20-7), Morehead (19-10) vs Kentucky (18-8).

Midwest at Lawrence, Kan. — Cincinnati (23-3) vs Texas Tech (14-9), Houston (17-9) vs Kansas State (21-4).

Far West at Portland, Ore. — Utah (21-6) vs Los Angeles Loyola (19-6), Southern California (21-6) vs Arizona State (22-5).

In the NIT tonight it's St. Louis

Carnes Horse to Get Big Test Today

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Old Story, a galloping winner for Mrs. Jack S. Carnes of Camden, in two of his three starts here, will test his ability at the mile and 70 yards distance today at Oaklawn Park in a featured $4,500 purse event honoring the Arkansas poultry industry.

Opposing the speedy 4-year old colt in the allowance event will be seven other good performers. Heading the list is Hal MBishop's pairing composed of Sputnik and Headquarters. Others in the short field are Mrs. Helene Sadacca's The Chosen One, A.L. Petty and H. Loyd's Ginos Dream, Ray Danner's Auctioneer, Mr. and Mrs. T.M. Daniel's Atomic Jet and F.F. Breener's Mr. Arkie.

Old Story, a son of Mighty Story and Makeup, scored by five lengths in the Trivista Purse early in the morning and followed it up with another five-length victory in a division of the $4,000 Mountain Valley handicap. Among those he vanquished were Old Cash, Eight Again and Leadstealer. He went postward a favorite in the $10,000 King Cotton handicap and finished fourth.

The Carnes colorbearer gets in today's feature with an impost of 100 pounds, eight less than the topweighted Atomic Jet and will again be ridden by Larry Larkin. Sputnik will be seeking his second Oaklawn triumph and will be piloted by Robert Nono who gets first call on the Bishop assignments. Headquarters will be making his first outing of the meeting.

The Chosen One, who will have Jimmy Nichols aboard, has been close in several efforts here. Gino's Dream closed strongly in his last outing.

Mrs. S. Helene Sadacca's A Dragon Killer grabbed the lead in the stretch to win by a half-length over W.H. Bishop's Special Jet Wednesday in the $4,200 featured Robert Sherwood purse.

Ridden by Jimmy Nichols, who returned to duty after a 10-day suspension, A Dragon Killer covered the six-furlong sprint in 1:10.1 to equal the best time of the meet for the distance.

Paul T. Adwell's Alrab took show honors, a head before J.D. Askey's True American.

A Dragon Killer, who won the 1958 Arlington Classic, had failed to score in his three previous Oaklawn outings. He paid $12.00, $5.40 and $4.20.

The crowd of 8,833 bet a total of $529,331.

McCovey Has to Go or the Giants Don't

By SHELDON SAKOWIT
Associated Press Sports Writer

If the San Francisco Giants are to be in contention for the National League pennant this season, it is generally agreed that Willie McCovey must make a comeback and regain his baseball batting eye.

One of new manager Alvin Dark's tasks is to get the lanky first baseman back on the beam in 1961 after McCovey's failure a year ago. From the looks of things thus far, the project may become a success, after all.

McCovey homered early in the game against the Chicago Cubs Wednesday and then started the Giants' rally in the ninth inning with a single, scoring the winning run. San Francisco overcame an 8-1 deficit and edged the Cubs 10-9.

In other games Wednesday, the Chicago White Sox edged Cincinnati 6-7, Washington turned back Baltimore 6-4, Detroit topped St. Louis 6-3, Milwaukee shaded the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-3 in 11 innings, Pittsburgh whipped Minnesota 10-4, New York blanked Philadelphia 2-0 and Boston beat Cleveland 14-6.

Racing Betting, Attendance Drops

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A decline in betting and attendance for the first 20 days at Oaklawn Park in Hot Springs this season was reported Wednesday by the State Revenue Department.

The drop was caused, said Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney, by poor weather and the economic recession.

State income from the track fell $55,241 to $507,846, Cheney said.

The first 20-day's attendance was 169,607, off 2,124 from a year ago; betting dropped $957,953 from 1960 to $9,099,595 for the period this year.

The Pirates erupted for nine runs in the sixth inning against the Twins for their fifth win in six starts. Bob Friend worked five innings for Pittsburgh, giving up one run and four hits. The Yanks snapped a four-game losing skid at the expense of the Phils Art Dittmar and Jim Coates combined for the five-hit shutout while Mickey Mantle homered for New York.

The Red Sox lagged Indian pitching for 10 runs in the first inning and coasted to victory. Willie Kirkland belted a grand-slam home run for the Tribe.

Lakers Are Just About in Playoffs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Los Angeles Lakers have just about won the right to play the St. Louis Hawks for the Western Division title in the National Basketball Association playoffs.

The Lakers whipped the Detroit Pistons 127-118 Wednesday night to take a commanding 2-0 lead in the best-of-five first round play-offs. Even if the Pistons square the series by winning the next two games at Detroit, Friday night and Saturday afternoon, they would have to buck the home court advantage in the deciding fifth game Sunday at Los Angeles.

As in Tuesday's opening game Elgin Baylor, the former All-America at Seattle University, was the big gun for the Lakers Wednesday night on the Los Angeles court. He fired in 49 points on 17 field goals and 15 free throws to make it 89 points in two nights against the Pistons.

The Eastern Division first round play-offs resume tonight at Syracuse with the Philadelphia Warriors and Wilt Chamberlain trying to square the series with the Nats at 1-1. Syracuse upset the Warriors in the opening game at Philadelphia Tuesday night.

Reds Demand Full Debate on Congo

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

—The Soviet Union today demanded that the U.N. General Assembly begin full debate on the Congo problem before the end of the week.

The Soviet demand was in a letter from Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko to the assembly's president, Frederick H. Boland of Ireland.

Gromyko said the situation in the Congo "is steadily deteriorating." In an apparent reference to the recent agreement of Congolese leaders to form a Congo confederation, he declared: "Attempts have been undertaken of late to dismember the Republic of the Congo, due to which the threat to the independence and territorial integrity of that country has grown."

The U. S. Navy's nuclear submarines can travel faster submerged than on the surface.

Will Faubus Veto Car Tax Increase?

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus indicated today that he has some reservations about signing a 1961 bill to set flat $15 and $22 fees for automobile licenses.

"I haven't received the bill from the Legislature yet," Faubus told a news conference, "and I haven't made up my mind about it."

Faubus had indicated last week that he would sign the bill. The governor said no member of the Legislature has asked him to veto the bill, but that one of its sponsors had told him he would not object to a veto.

The bill would revoke present the complicated formula under which license fees are computed and set a charge of $15 for cars under 1,400 pounds and $22 for cars over that weight. Prices now range from $7 for a small foreign car to $25 for large American cars.

The bill passed under a cloud in the House. It got a one-vote majority and later Pike County Rep. Alvin Stokes said his vote had been cast for the bill illegally. Stokes said he would ask Faubus to veto the bill, but Faubus said Stokes has not asked to him.

5 Electrical Firms Sued by TVA and U.S.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Justice Department, which Tuesday joined the Tennessee Valley Authority in suing five electrical equipment firms for nearly $12 million for alleged overcharges, says other damage suits are contemplated.

But in making the statement, neither Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy nor William Maher, chief of the antitrust division here, elaborated. Maher earlier this year headed the successful prosecution of 29 big electrical firms and 44 of their executives on charges of bid rigging and price fixing which led to Tuesday's action here.

The suit was the first filed by the federal government. States, cities and private utilities also are planning multimillion-dollar actions against the firms.

The General Electric Co. and Westinghouse Electric Corp., America's two biggest manufacturers who were among the five named in the suit Tuesday, said they would vigorously defend themselves against the latest action.

The two firms, both of which pleaded guilty or no defense along with 27 other companies in the huge antitrust case which Maher prosecuted, said their customers were neither cheated nor victimized.

Echoing their sentiments was the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co. of West Allis, Wis., which also was named in the civil action and earlier had pleaded guilty or no defense on the antitrust charges.

The two other firms named in the joint civil action filed in U.S. District Court here were the Federal Electric Co. of Newark, N.J., and I-T-E Circuit Breaker Co. of Philadelphia. They, too, had pleaded guilty or no defense on the antitrust charges.

The civil action charged that collusive rigging of bids and the illegal fixing of prices in the sale of oil circuit breakers since 1951 resulted in prices about 40 percent higher than what should have been charged.

It alleged that TVA and the federal agencies bought more than $25 million worth of circuit breakers at prices roughly 40 percent too high in the last nine years.

The Justice Department sued on behalf of the Atomic Energy Commission, the Army Engineers, the Bureau of Reclamation, the Southwestern Power Administration and the Bonneville Power Administration. It seeks double damages of $4,421,372.

TVA contended that it can sue for itself as an independent, self-sufficient corporation and not as a government agency.

If the court upholds this theory, TVA can collect triple damages if it can prove it sustained a money loss. TVA, however, specifically asks for the treble amount of $7,478,691. But if the agency can collect only double damages, under the federal False Claims Act, it would be entitled to recover a maximum of $4,985,794.

Not Even Bread

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — A $25 fine was levied against a milk store salesman who yielded to a customer's pleas to sell him two loaves of bread Sunday "so his children could have some for breakfast."

A city law forbids Sunday food sales.

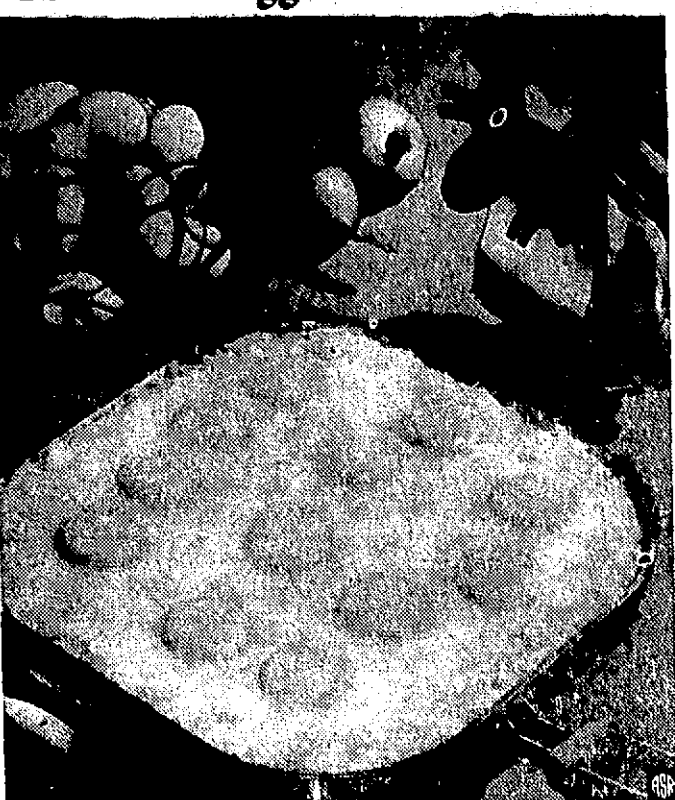

The customer was an off-duty clerk in the city police department. Officers arrested the salesman, B.J. Barclay, 72, a few minutes after the sale.

Homestead Eggs... For Go Power

A dozen eggs in the refrigerator are as good as gold when the call comes for a good meal in a hurry. You will want to serve them often for Lenten meals during March which is National Egg Month. Eggs give a lift to any meal of the day, from breakfast to late-at-night snacks. Eggs are important, too, for their high quality protein and other body-building nutrients, and for their low calorie count. Feature eggs often in your meals, and give your family the "go power" we all need these last blustery weeks of winter and first unpredictable days of spring.

With eggs priced to please everyone's pocketbook, now is the time to take advantage of the outstretched "Handful of Health."

Tip to the cook: Choose a skillet size so when you slide the eggs (previously broken into a bowl) into the skillet over the onion layer the yolks are nestled in a deep layer of white.

Homestead Skillet Eggs

1/2 cup (1 stick) butter or margarine
2 cups (about 10 oz.) chopped onion

1 dozen eggs
1 teaspoon salt

Melt butter or margarine in 10-inch electric frypan with heat control set at 300°F. Add onions, spreading to make even layer on bottom of pan, and cook until transparent, stirring occasionally. Break eggs into bowl, then slide eggs into pan atop onions. Sprinkle with salt. Cover and cook eggs to desired doneness, 5 to 7 minutes. To serve, cut 1, 2 or 3 yolk portions according to appetite. Makes about 6 servings.

Reds Seeking a Showdown on Congo

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union pushed today for immediate General Assembly debate on the Congo to gain a wider hearing for the Soviet blasts against the new confederation form of government developing in the chaotic African territory.

After a week of marking time since it resumed its session, the assembly showed signs of getting down to work. U. S.-Soviet negotiations to trim the agenda collapsed Tuesday, with the Soviets adamant in their rejection of an American proposal to postpone most items on the agenda—and chiefly disarmament—until the fall. The United States in turn, rejected a Soviet proposal to drop the Soviet complaint against U.S. reconnaissance flights if the charges of Communist suppression in Hungary and Tibet were dropped.

Soviet delegates roamed the U. N. corridors seeking to line up Asian-African support for an immediate Congo debate. The Soviets charged that the agreement by anti-Communist Congolese political leaders meeting at Tananarive, Malagasy, last week to replace the federal form of government in the Congo by a confederation of semi-independent states was a Belgian trick to break up the new African nation and keep a foothold in rich Katanga Province.

The Soviet charge was echoed by the government-controlled Cairo press, which said the United Arab Republic would request an urgent session of the Security Council to "discuss the conspiracy to dismember the Congo."

The United States and its major allies consider that the confederation plan is a more realistic arrangement for the Congo than the unworkable system of central control left by the Belgians, which collapsed in a welter of tribal and sectional rivalries soon after independence was won last summer.

The Soviets, the U. A. R. and certain other African backers of the late Patrice Lumumba want a strong central government headed by Antoine Gizenga, the pro-Communist leader of the regime in the eastern Congo, who boycotted the Tananarive conference.

Since after his wife collapsed at their home in May 1959, the funeral home maintained she was dead when the ambulance crew arrived at the Leonard house.

Shorter Work Week Asked by President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy said today he is opposed to a shorter work week.

Kennedy told his news conference he is unhappy because the declining economy has reduced the work week for many below 40 hours.

The President was asked if he agreed with some labor union proposals that shorter hours might be one of the solutions to the present level of unemployment.

Kennedy replied that he hopes the 5 day 40 hour week can be continued. He said it is necessary if the United States is going to

Jury Refuses This Claim

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A circuit court jury has denied the damage claim of a man who said his critically ill wife was taken to a funeral home instead of to a hospital.

Rufus B. Leonard Sr. testified Tuesday he called the Wilson-Sammon Funeral Home for an ambulance to take his wife to the hospital.

"I would be opposed to any arbitrary reduction of the work week," Kennedy said, "and I am unhappy when I see the work week reduced artificially, in the sense that the pressures of a declining economy reduce it so that we get averages of 38.5 hours a week instead of the 40 hours a week."

THE STORY: Chris Waddell, new night marshal of Midas Hill, is proving to the rough element of the mining camp that is going to maintain law and order. Mike Vespasian, a former marshal, has talked to Waddell, and approves of the man. Another friend of Waddell's is Ace McSwain, a gambler.

CHAPTER X

Norma Vespasian sang softly to herself while she did up the supper dishes. A thoroughly self-reliant girl, and one quite used to considerable periods of solitary housekeeping, with her father away tending cattle in the Alpine Meadows so much of the time.

She had put together a good supper for her father and herself and while eating, they had swapped experiences since last they had been together, some three weeks gone. Mike Vespasian had been particularly interested in her trip from Spanish Junction.

"Have to see Millerson about that," he declared grimly. "It was no chore for a girl and I'll tell him so."

"Don't scold Mr. Millerson, Dad. It was my fault. I had to go to Spanish Junction on other business for Mr. Millerson, and to me it seemed silly not to take care of everything on the one trip. Mr. Millerson wasn't too happy over the idea, but I persuaded him. So blame me, not him."

She had finished with the supper chores and was busy with a bit of sewing when her father returned. He rubbed his hands together against this chill and spoke musingly.

"Yeah, it'll be interesting to watch."

She questioned him with a glance as well as with words. "What will, Dad?"

"How this Waddell makes out. If he means what he said—and I think he does—certain people in this town are in for the shock of their lives."

Mike Vespasian hauled up a chair, settled into it. Then he told her what had passed between him and Waddell.

"So that's it," he ended. "The man is going to have a try at what I'd like to have done. He's going to defy the whole crooked lot of them."

Norma laid aside her sewing, got to her feet and moved restlessly about the room.

"He'll never be able to do it, Dad. If he did that he would be going against Scobie's orders. Scobie wouldn't stand for it. He'd fire him."

Mike Vespasian chuckled softly. "I sort of gathered the idea he wasn't going to fire easy."

Chris Waddell finished his final round of Ute Street two hours past midnight. By now the Gulch had lost its vigor, its appetites. The honky-tonks had gone dark and silent and the lights in the dives and deadfalls were winking out.

Summit Street, like Ute, was now empty, and even darker, the only show of light being a faint glow in the lobby of the Hill House and a fuller gleam from the windows of the Palace. He recalled what Frank Scobie had said about the latter place, that here was the toniest whiskey and poker house in town, and where they did not care to see a man of the law on the premises. Which fact, in his present mood, decided Waddell.

Welcome warmth met him as he stepped into the Palace. Scotty Deale was delivering a tray of such drinks to the four men who sat around a poker table. One of these Waddell saw was the tawny Price Ringgold. Another was Ace MacSwain, the gambler who had staked him to a supper at Decker's Flat. The other two were strange in Waddell's eyes, but well dressed and prosperous looking.

Scotty Deale now turned to Chris Waddell and showed a quick and unaccounted displeasure. As he circled to the back of the bar and faced Waddell across it, Waddell beat him to any words, and curtly.

"If you're about to say the same thing Bred Garvey did, don't bother. This place is a dead-fall the same as all the others. A little quieter perhaps, but still a deadfall. I'll come and go in it as I please. Right now I'll have a whiskey."

Speakng, he rang a coin on the bar.

Scotty Deale, a gangling man with a heavy nose and long, pendulous lips, seemed ready to refuse to serve Waddell. Then he shrugged and set out bottle and glass.

The poker players were making to leave. The two well dressed, older men were the first to pass Waddell, both eyeing him impersonally before nodding their goodnights to Scotty Deale. Price Ringgold, the tawny one, followed. But as he laid his pale glance on Waddell he paused.

Ringgold's tone sharpened. "This isn't Ute Street."

"True," agreed Waddell drily. "But, like you, I travel both Ute and Summit."

Hardness sprang up in Ringgold, flashing through his pale eyes, tightening his cheeks.

"I'll have a talk with Scobie about this."

"Do that," Waddell invited. "But," he warned, "when you do, see that you don't take my name in vain."

Ohio Negro Shot to Death at Spa

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The body of a 57-year-old Cincinnati Negro who had been shot to death was found here Tuesday in a parked car.

Detective Ernest Dodd identified the victim as Ralph Coleman. Dodd said Coleman had been shot twice.

Residents of the area said they heard what might have been shots shortly before Coleman was found.

Irish Will Celebrate on Friday

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Millions of Americans will be celebrating on Friday the tradition of the care-free Irish. Most of those in the parades and various extracurricular shenanigans will even boast a family tree showing roots in the land of St. Patrick.

But spare a thought, too, for the some three million souls in the Republic of Ireland itself. They are busily working on a new image far from just carefree laughter and song—and an occasional spirit-rewarding Donnybrook.

It's an economic development program that any Irishman will tell you is dynamic. In Yankee business terms: The Irish Gross National Product—total output of goods and services—was up 5 per cent last year, about twice the growth in the United States, and exports in the last two years rose by nearly a fourth.

You can hear all this in New York, because the Irish Industrial Development Authority has an office in this big haven of the Irish. All hands are eager to get American firms to put money and factories and skills into this grand scheme for changing the old-fashioned concept of Ireland. The stress is all on producing goods, not for the Irish themselves, but for their export trade.

In the last three years more than 100 new industries have found a home in Ireland, producing everything from ships to chewing gum.

Exports this year are expected to reach $476 million, or about $156 for every man, woman and child in the land. Between 1955 and 1959 export gains ranged from 57 per cent for printed matter to 900 per cent for garments.

The Irish, who have been known to boast a bit now and then, doubt that any other country can top those gains, or the Irish record for attracting foreign capital. And how do they do it? With tax exemptions, cash grants, nearness to growing markets, and a manpower surplus on which to draw at wage rates considerably less than in the United States.

So the Americans and the British are producing a variety of products ranging from fully fashioned knitwear to chewing gum and dry milk powder. The Japanese are making transistor radios at Shannon. The Germans are making cheese at Westford, sweaters at Tralee, and building cranes at Killybeg. The Dutch are turning out pianos at Shannon, plastic pipe in Dublin, and ships near Cork.

Compare the incentives the Irish government offers with manufacturing conditions here. The foreign firm in Ireland gets 10 years tax exemption from income tax on export profits—or 22 years if he locates at Shannon Free Air port.

There is no sales or purchases or turnover tax, no capital gains tax and no extra tax on distributed profits.

The foreign manufacturer may receive outright cash grants up to 100 per cent on factory building

Negro College Has a New President

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Dr. Roosevelt David Crockett, 41, will succeed Dr. M. Lafayette Harris as president of Philander Smith College.

Crockett, a Philander Smith graduate and native of Forrest City, now is administrative assistant to the president of Alabama State College at Montgomery, Ala. Harris was named a bishop in the Methodist Church last August and now is assigned to the church's Atlantic Coast area with headquarters in Atlanta, Ga. J. D. Scott, the school's development director, has been acting president.

Costs, up to 50 per cent on machinery costs, and up to 100 per cent on worker-training costs.

The Irish also guarantee free transfer of the foreign firm's dividends, interest and profits into its own currency. And capital and appreciation can be repatriated at any time.

So that's what business is like in St. Patrick's bailiwick this day, by the Irishmen's own story.

Woman, 69, Gets Life Sentence

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Myrtle Veronica Barber, a 69-year-old grandmother, was assessed a life term in prison Tuesday as a habitual criminal.

She was found guilty of forging a $38 check and had two previous convictions on similar offenses. Three convictions made her eligible for the life sentence.

Says Miracle Is Needed in Congo

MEMPHIS (AP)—Only a miracle can save the world from a breakdown in the Congo that might pull the rest of the world into a war, Hodding Carter told a college group Tuesday night.

The Greenville, Miss., newspaperman pessimistically warned a Siena College audience that UN failure in the Congo would result in the United States entering the Congo in force. There, he said, the U.S. would meet Russia.

"This revolution in Africa is inevitably leading to a showdown

Elvis' Hubcaps

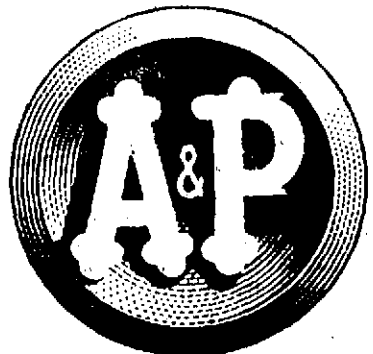

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Two of singer Elvis Presley's four missing hubcaps have been recovered from the bedroom wall of a teen-aged girl, police said. The hubcaps were taken from Presley's car last Saturday night while it was parked at a Nashville recording studio.

Test Escape System

LANGLEY AIR FORCE BASE, Va. (AP)—A test of the escape system of a Project Mercury space craft, scheduled for Thursday at Wallops Island, has been postponed until Saturday or Monday.

between the East and the West," Carter said. "The great question is whether the UN can provide the guidance or whether the communists are going to take over."

Carter said that if the West is to win Africa it will take men and money, but he said the cost would be small compared to the expense it will take "to survive if the Communists take over."

Honeyed Cereal Crunch Sundae Pie

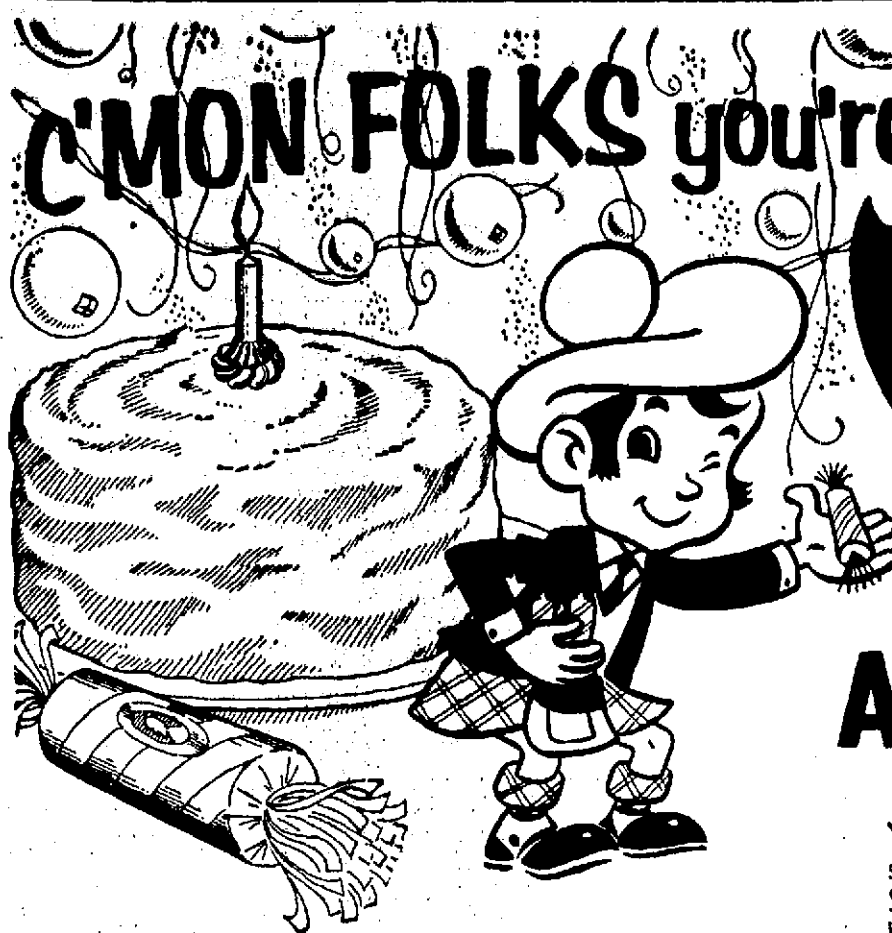

April—the Eighth Annual Spring Cereal and Milk Festival jointly sponsored by the Cereal Institute and the American Dairy Association—is the time to alert nutrition-minded homemakers to the virtues of this food team. The cereal and milk serving is a good source of many nutrients. Few servings can make such a contribution to the satisfaction of daily nutritional needs at such low cost.

Honeyed Cereal Crunch Sundae Pie with butterscotch sauce is a unique way to combine this nutritious team of cereal and milk into a delicious but easy-to-make dessert. This pie can be made ahead and frozen or it can be served immediately. If frozen, remove from the freezer and allow to mellow for a short time before serving.

Honeyed Cereal Crunch Sundae Pie
1 1/2 cups puffed wheat, regular or presweetened
1/4 cup honey
2 tablespoons sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1/2 cup flaked coconut, toasted
1 quart vanilla ice cream

Place cereal in greased bowl and set aside. Combine honey, sugar, and salt in saucepan. Bring to a boil over medium heat, stirring to dissolve sugar. Continue boiling until a small amount of syrup forms a firm ball in cold water (or to a temperature of 246°F). Add butter or margarine. Pour syrup over cereal in bowl, stirring lightly to coat. Add toasted coconut, combining quickly. Press mixture gently on bottom and sides of well-greased 9-inch pie pan. Chill. Fill with vanilla ice cream, serve with butterscotch sauce. Yield: 1 9-inch pie.

Peace Group to Study Cold War Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — Peace Corps volunteers will be instructed on cold war issues but only as "part of their equipment" for service overseas, the corps director, R. Sargent Shriver, said today.

He was asked at a meeting of the American Society for Public Administration whether the volunteers will be indoctrinated regarding communism and anticommunism.

"We intend to give such background instruction, but not as an essential part of the mission. It will be part of their equipment, but it is not the purpose of their going overseas," he said.

Shriver, brother-in-law of President Kennedy, told the group that the corps, thought temporary and experimental, is "organized and in business." A staff of 60 is at work and is growing each day.

The minimum age limit will be 18, Shriver said. There is no upper age limit, and married couples will be welcomed to serve in some countries such as India, he said.

Fulbright Asks State Be Test Area

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright today asked that an area in his home state of Arkansas be included in the Department of Agriculture's test program on government food stamps.

Fulbright pointed out to Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman that the eight depressed areas designated in the experiment were all mining sections.

The Arkansas senator said he thought a Southern agricultural area should be included to give the test more uniformity.

The Department of Agriculture is trying a revival of the food stamp plan of New Deal days as an anti-recession weapon. Needy persons may purchase the stamps from the government at less than cost and the redeeming grocer is reimbursed by the government for the difference between the stamp costs and regular retail prices.

Fulbright said a recent report showed 208,000 Arkansans or one-ninth the state's population now receive free commodities under the present surplus food program.

Fulbright didn't suggest any specific section of Arkansas for the stamp plan.

Free Ferry to Cost $18,000

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Highway Commission today allotted $18,000 for operation of a free ferry to Sylamore on the White River between Stone and Izard Counties.

The 1961 Legislature directed operation of a state ferry there.

Shocked at Soviet Steel Production

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg said today it was "shocking" to find the Soviet Union has probably equaled or surpassed this country's rate of steel production.

Goldberg, speaking at a public gathering of some 350 persons in this economically depressed area, added:

"I just do not accept the concept, nor does President Kennedy, that we do not need the steel that this country is capable of producing."

The secretary set of figures for 1960's third quarter show U.S. steel production of approximately 19 million net tons. The Soviet Union, he said, produced a little over 18 million.

Goldberg said that if the trend continued, "it is probably true that the steel production of the Russians for the last quarter of last year equaled or exceeded that of the United States."

Goldberg continued his tour of depressed areas with a swing through Minnesota's troubled northeastern region. Jobless workers in this iron range country number about 13 per cent of the labor force.

Future for Cotton May Prove Dreary

MEMPHIS (AP) — The long-range future for cotton may be a dreary one if farmers continue to depend on a government subsidy for exports, the National Cotton Council's chief economist says.

M. K. Horne told Mid-South Cotton Ginner here Tuesday: "If we hope to depend mainly and permanently on a subsidy, we find ourselves depending on a bigger and bigger subsidy... our competitors — including foreign rayon and foreign cotton — are improving their production methods, and they have a vast advantage in cheap labor."

Horne said this country's farmers are not in a position to produce cotton at the world price, adding:

"The only other answer is research and promotion to make

National Rice Week—March 19-25

"This has indeed been a notable year of progress for rice promotion, and rice in the 60's has the greatest market potential of any farm commodity."

This statement was made by Frank A. Godchaux, III, Abbeville, La., president of the Rice Council For Market Development, in announcing National Rice Week, March 19 through 25.

Godchaux said, that a marked increase in consumer sales of rice has been very noticeable over the past three years.

"Meanwhile," he added, "our need to tell the rice story is expanding right along with our industry. And rice consumption will increase as national promotional effort is widened. This is well illustrated by our chain store surveys in various sections of the country, where different chains have reported from 6.5 per cent to as high as 24.4 per cent increases in volume sales of rice."

"I am happy to report that more and more rice growers have assumed responsibility along with their neighbors who grow rice, with rice mills, rice dryers, canal companies, rice sales offices and allied industries in helping to sell the rice they produce. Rice growers represent a vital factor in enlarging our nation-wide advertising, merchandising and public relations campaign."

This year, the first big promotional campaign to be launched by the Rice Council is concentrated during National Rice Week.

New ways of using rice, appetizing menus featuring rice, and reminders that rice is the most appropriate food are being beamed to home-makers through television, radio, newspapers and magazines. An advertising campaign will carry the rice story into homes through advertisements in GOOD HOUSEKEEPING scheduled for February and March.

Godchaux called upon the growers in rice-producing states, particularly Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas and Mississippi, to rededicate themselves in continuing efforts to reach the American consumer.

"All evidence points to the fact that in the next decade the market potential for rice will be enormous," he said. "Right now there is a large market awaiting rice among the great middle majority and higher income groups, in low consumption areas, and in mass-feeding establishments such as restaurants, hotels, and hospitals. In the next decade this market will enlarge considerably."

"Today, new developments travel with the speed of sight and sound through magazines, newspapers, radio and television," Godchaux pointed out. "This makes it essential to reach consumers and mass-feeding operators often, with timely, useful and pertinent rice information. Today, food habits that used to take a generation to alter can be changed very quickly."

"National Rice Week," Godchaux concluded, "is the signal for renewed and expanded action in that direction."

Things Office Boy Tires of Hearing

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks an office boy gets tired of hearing: "Hey, boy, get a move on!"

"When I worked as an office boy, I got $7.50 a week and was glad to get it. Now they want $30 to start—and they think they're doing you a favor."

"I can stand everything about him except that duck-tail haircut. Every time he goes to the men's room, he spends half an hour combing it while he looks at himself in the mirror."

"If you don't mind, young man, would you please wear an ordinary suit coat tomorrow? We're not exactly an old-fashioned firm, but we still feel a black leather jacket is a bit out of place in a business office."

"I realize a growing boy needs plenty of sleep, Henry, but couldn't you somehow manage to get it at home?"

"Hey, boy! How about trotting down to the drug store and getting us two cartons of black coffee, a couple crullers, and a ham and cheese on rye? If there's any change left over, get yourself a doughnut."

"I hate to ask you to take it back, Henry, but after all I did tell you I wanted mine without mayonnaise."

"Henry's ambitious. He's always doing something to improve himself. Right now he's taking a correspondence school course in jujitsu."

"Don't fret about the pimples, kid. You'll outgrow them. Then markets expand and costs come down."

Says Public Should Know the Score

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An Air Force officer says citizens should find out what an enemy attack is like, and a good way is to test missiles over home territory, as the Russians do, for psychological effect.

Lt. Col. Roy O. Roberts of Holloman Air Force Base, N.M., told a news conference Tuesday:

"We will evacuate certain corridors for the time being just as we do at sea. The chance of accident would be small because the missiles tested would be of the reliable type and subject to destruction in the air if they got out of line."

you can start worrying about your hair falling out."

"Yep, Henry, I began as an office boy just like you—47 years ago. Next month I retire on pension—$200 a month, the same amount you're getting now. Not bad, eh?"

"Just tell me one thing—why does he always walk around with that transistor radio glued to his ear? Is it stuck there?"

"I don't mind that so much. It's the expression on his face while he's listening to it that gives me the creeps."

"Oh, they all look dopey at that age. It's their adenoids or something."

"It's against my policy to borrow money from office boys, Henry, but could you let me have a fast fiver? I've got a sure tip on a horse in the third race."

"Don't kid Henry to much about those three little hairs on his chin. He's trying to grow a beard. He's decided to become a beatnik."

"Hey, boy! Take these—"

Ribbing That's Fun

Barbecued spareribs make a ginger as much fun as a picnic. The succulent spareribs are the more enjoyable too when the meat is glazed with a sweet and pungent barbecue sauce.

Pantry shelf staples provide the prized basting sauce: unsulphured molasses, catchup, spices. There is no fuss to these barbecued spareribs. The ribs are topped with lemon slices and chopped onion and partially baked before the barbecue sauce is added to contribute its mellowness of flavor and shining splendor.

Molasses Barbecued Spareribs
3 pounds spareribs, cut into serving pieces
1 lemon, thinly sliced
1 medium onion, chopped
2 1/2 cup unsulphured molasses
1 teaspoon chili powder
1 tablespoon celery seed
1/4 cup vinegar
1/4 cup Worcestershire sauce
1 cup catchup
1/2 teaspoon Tabasco
2 cups water

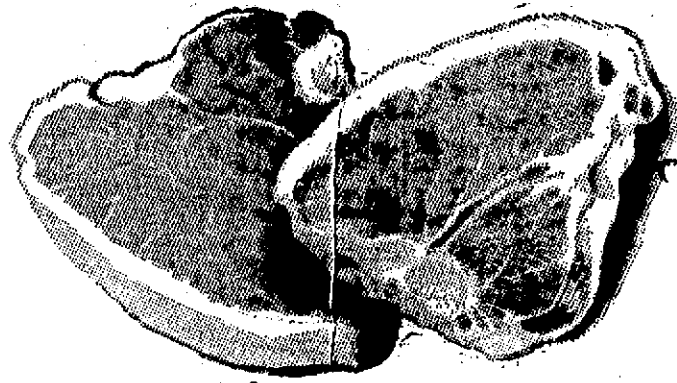

Place spareribs, meat side up, in shallow baking pan. Sprinkle with salt. Top with lemon slices and chopped onion. Bake by moderate oven (350°F.) 30 minutes. Combine unsulphured molasses with chili powder and celery seed; stir in remaining ingredients. Pour over spareribs. Continue baking 1 hour longer, basting frequently. Yield: 4 servings.

Nikita, Castro Get the Blame

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A 29-year-old mother was granted a divorce from her contractor-builder husband after she testified he spent $900 on cablegrams to Nikita Khrushchev and Fidel Castro.

Mrs. William Henry Riley also testified that her husband would allow only candles and a kerosene lamp and heater to heat and light their home, and he insisted their three young children observe Jewish fast days although the family is Protestant.

Riley, denying most of the charges, acknowledged sending the cablegrams to Castro, but said the telephone company would not accept the Khrushchev message.

More Racial Trouble in Tennessee

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A stand-in demonstration protesting segregation in theaters turned into a rock-throwing melee between Negroes and white youths in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Only two persons were arrested but police broke up clashes involving as many as 50 white persons and 50 Negroes before order was restored late Tuesday night.

In other demonstrations, 175 Negroes were arrested during a singing, clapping protest against segregation at downtown stores in Louisville, Ky.; five pickets were jailed at Rock Hill, S.C. and six sit-in demonstrators were arrested at Rutherfordton, N.C.

South Carolina's Gov. Ernest F. Hollings refused to yield to what he called attempts "to exact the customs of New Jersey" on his state. Demand for desegregated hotel facilities in Charleston for a meeting of the National Civil War Centennial Commission next month had been made by New Jersey delegates.

World heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson declared himself satisfied that there was no segregation of the audience at his successful Miami Beach title defense against Ingemar Johansson Monday night, and returned a forfeit check of $10,000 to Feature Sports Inc. The check was put up as a guarantee against segregation.

The Navy, replying to a protest from the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said, "All officers and men are granted liberty with no discrimination whatsoever."

The NAACP had accused Navy officials of "heaping humiliation on Negro officers and men" in visiting strictly segregated ports in South Africa.

Bridge Work Main Road Projects

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Highway Commission today opened apparent low bids totaling $906,737 on five road and bridge projects.

Nearly one-half of the total of $906,737 on five road and bridge projects.

Nearly one-half of the total of the small letting was representing by a job for reconstruction of a section of Highway 67 in White County.

Ben M. Hogan Construction Co. of Little Rock was apparent low bidder on this with a proposal of $427,250.

Bids also were opened on insurance for the Mississippi River Bridge at Helena.

The apparent low was a joint bid of $49,225 submitted by Stewart Sneed Hewes of Gulfport, Miss. and the Security Agency of Pine Bluff.

Both the Arkansas commission and the Mississippi Highway Commission must approve the insurance contract.

Apparent low bidders by counties on the construction projects were:

St. Francis—Approximately 3.5 miles of grading, minor drainage structures and bituminous surfacing and one concrete span bridge on Hughes-Earle Road, Highway 149; Buelon Construction Co., Hazen, $137,582.

Scott—Approximately 1.2 miles of grading, minor drainage structures, bituminous surfacing and one concrete and steel span bridge on Parks-Cedar Creek Road, Highway 28, E. E. Barber Construction Co., Fort Smith, $197,193.

Dallas and Calhoun — Approximately two miles of grading, minor drainage structures, bituminous surfacing and one concrete slab bridge of Tri County Lake-Junction Highway 8 Road, Highway 205 Southeast Construction Co., Pine Bluff, $99,415.

White—Approximately 5.6 miles of grading, minor drainage structures, widenings and bituminous surfacing, plus widening three bridges and constructing one concrete and steel girder bridge on Cabot-Bald Knob Road, Highway 67; Ben M. Hogan Construction Co., Little Rock, $427,250.

Desha—About a mile of grading, drainage structures and one concrete span bridge on state Highway 1-Arkansas City county road across Lake Isaacs; J. Lester Booker Co., Little Rock, $45,288.

County Road Study Is Authorized

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Highway Commission today authorized a detailed study of the county road system in Phillips County, preparatory to negotiating a contract to take county roads into the state highway system.

Act 114 of 1953 authorizes the commission to take over county roads under a contract with the county judge.

The commission budgeted $3,000 for the study and said it would be used as a pilot project in an overall study of the feasibility of taking all county roads into the state system.

The 1961 legislature asked the Highway Department and the Legislative Council to study the possibility of transferring all federal aid county roads into the state system.

The study authorized today will delve into needs, costs and revenue trends affecting county roads.

Nike Space Test

ELGIN AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP) — The Air Force has launched a 90-mile high Nike-Cajun space probe to study radio antennae operations and very low frequency transmissions at high altitudes. The vehicle was launched Tuesday from nearby Santa Rosa Island.

Give Teen-Agers A Good Start

Teen-agers in your home? Then try to be a better influence over what they eat since they have notoriously poor diets. If your youngsters are home from school now for spring vacation, remind them of the importance of well-balanced meals.

Vitamin C is one of the food elements teen-agers require every day but frequently lack. Citrus fruit is a great source of this vitamin so essential for glowing health and looks. Oranges and grapefruit offer quick energy and other important nutrients, too. Florida's wonderful citrus fruits are plentiful now so serve them often. Happily, young people like citrus, especially when served imaginatively.

Encourage all members of your family to eat or drink citrus fruit each morning and to take the time to follow it up with at least one egg and a serving of cereal or whole wheat bread or muffins. Then you'll be sure their day had a good start.

To Prepare Grapefruit Halves

Cut fruit in half; remove core if desired. Cut around each section, loosening fruit from membrane. Do not cut around entire outer edge of fruit. Serve plain or topped with honey, maple syrup, brown sugar, cinnamon or nutmeg. Note: Large Florida oranges may be prepared and served in the same way.
